Thursday 11th February 2021

Dear parents and carers,

I am writing with my final weekly update of the half-term.

Half-term and re-opening plans

Next week is half-term and the school will therefore be closed. Children of Key Worker and Vulnerable families will return on Monday 22nd February. We are expecting to have further news from the government about plans to re-open schools to all pupils at that point.

Free School Meal Vouchers

We will be providing Free School Meal Vouchers to eligible families next week, despite the school being closed for half-term. Parents in receipt of the vouchers should expect to have them around the beginning of the week.

Thank you

May I thank each and every one of you for your continued support throughout this very busy and tiring term. The way you have supported your children at home to continue their learning has been very impressive and the feedback you have provided to our weary staff has been very much appreciated.

Half-term activities

The class blogs will have a small number of activities on there next week, in case you'd like some ideas of things to do during the holiday. None of this is compulsory, but if you fancy having a go, you are warmly encouraged to do so.

Contract tracing

As has been the case during previous holidays, I will remain available via the office email address (office@worksoppriory.snmat.org.uk) for any parent/carer who needs to report a positive test result for their child. If your child receives a positive Covid test result between Saturday 13th and Wednesday 17th February, please let me know immediately so I can consider if any children or staff have been a close contact during an infectious period and take the appropriate action.

In the meantime, I hope that you are able to enjoy the coming week.

Yours sincerely

Mr Phil Abbott
Headteacher
